

I support the current New Jersey "Do Not Call" law and do not want it changed. We should have had this legislation many many years ago.